Dear Mr. Daniel III:

CONGRATULATIONS!

You have been selected to receive the 2014 Annual Queen Smith Award for Commitment to Urban Public Education.

The Council of the Great City Schools and McGraw-Hill Education present this award each year in the name of our dear, departed friend, Queen Smith. Her life represented honor, excellence, and commitment to urban public education. As the winner of the Queen Smith Award, you will receive a $5,000 check and plaque honoring your significant contributions to urban education and the children we serve. Before the check is issued we will need your social security number. Please call conference manager Terry Tabor at our office at 202 393-2427 ext. 215 or email her at ttabor@cgcs.org.

The award presentation will be held Friday, October 24, 2014, 7:30 am, during breakfast at the Milwaukee Convention Center in Milwaukee, WI in conjunction with the Council of the Great City Schools' 58th Annual Fall Conference. We hope you will be able to attend. The Council will waive the $175 registration fee but you will need to provide your own travel and hotel or your district will need to do so. If you are unable to attend, the award will be presented on your behalf to your school superintendent or another person scheduled to attend.

Once again, we are proud and pleased to present you with the Queen Smith Award. Thank you for the excellent work you do on behalf of our children.

Sincerely,

Michael Casserly
Executive Director
